

Ruskin Mill Land Trust

Ruskin Mill Land Trust (a charitable trust) holds, preserves and develops the vision, research and method of Ruskin Mill. Its associated charitable company, Ruskin Mill Trust Limited, provides innovative and experiential education and training for young people marginalised by disadvantage, exclusion or special learning needs. Inspired by Rudolf Steiner, John Ruskin and William Morris, the charity actively promotes - through craftsmanship and entrepreneurship - the traditional economic activities of the Cotswolds, Midlands and Sheffield (at Colleges in each geographical location).

Applications are invited for the following based in Nailsworth, near Stroud, Gloucestershire.

Head of Staff Education and Training
£56,282.00 - £60,139.00 per annum dependant on experience and qualifications

In this role you will work in collaboration with the Founder of the Trust and the Director of Practical Skills in Therapeutic Education (PSTE)-Pedagogy to ensure a whole Trust approach to staff education and professional development with responsibility for the innovation, development and quality assurance of training courses and educational programmes up to Master's level for all Trust staff.

Working alongside the Director of PSTE - Pedagogy you will have responsibility for the leadership and management of the Hiram Education and Research Team working across the Trust ensuring excellence in the delivery of training and staff development, helping to inform the practice and performance of the Trust's provisions.

To undertake this role successfully you must have demonstrable experience of implementing rigorous systems with regards to staff training and development that would ensure that the Trust is able to monitor compliance which satisfies external regulators such as Ofsted and CQC. An awareness of Rudolf Steiner, John Ruskin and William Morris whose insights inform the vision and values of Ruskin Mill Trust would be advantageous.

The Trust may contribute to relocation costs should this be required.

Closing Date: Midday Friday, 24th November 2017
