Complaints or Compliments

Our Policy

This information sheet describes Ruskin Mill Trust's (RMT) policy. It also explains the way in which complaints can be made and the procedures that the Trust will follow for investigating them and putting things right where they have gone wrong.

RMT supports the rights of every student, member of staff, partner organisation or member of the public to raise issues and where it is thought necessary make complaints about our work.

We recognise that learning from feedback helps us to put things right and to improve and develop the services that we offer.

We will:

- ▶ Make sure that people know how to make a complaint and are fully supported in doing so.
- ▶ Ensure that we treat everyone fairly, openly and equitably and that we are consistent in the way in which we investigate complaints.
- ▶ Treat both those who complain and those who are the subject of a complaint with dignity and respect, equally irrespective of race, ethnic origin, gender, marital or parental status, sexual orientation, religion or belief, disability, age or political belief.
- ▶ Act fairly, not apportion blame, but seek to identify problems or weaknesses, to address these and to identify remedies and improvements.
- ▶ Make sure that all parties understand the process and the timescales involved and are kept informed of progress.
- ▶ Give advice to those who complain or are the subject of a complaint about their options to obtain independent advice and the procedure for escalating their complaint if not satisfied with our response.
- ▶ Endeavour to investigate complaints with minimum delay, although sometimes complex complaints may take some time to resolve. Where delays are unavoidable, all parties in the process will be kept informed of progress.

- ▶ Operate a system of “extended confidentiality” to ensure safe and best practice for the wellbeing of students.
- ▶ Ensure that data is handled correctly and held securely. It may not be possible to maintain confidentiality in certain circumstances. This would include allegations which involve third parties or where criminal activity has been found to have taken place.
- ▶ Write to the person making the complaint and tell them about the outcome of the investigation. They will be invited to contact the investigator in case of query and of the action that they can take if they are not satisfied with the way in which the complaint was handled.
- ▶ Apologise if we have done something wrong.

How to make a complaint

If anyone is dissatisfied with our action, lack of action or quality of service, they are fully entitled to complain.

Step One

If you would like to make a complaint, please contact us at the addresses listed below. It would help us if you could provide the following information:

- ▶ Your name and contact details
- ▶ Your preferred means of contact
- ▶ The name of the student on whose behalf you may be contacting us (where relevant)
- ▶ The nature of the matter, including the effect that it has had on you/a student
- ▶ Any suggestions for putting things right
- ▶ The name of staff members or volunteers, if known whose efforts or achievements you feel worthy of praise

Step Two

- a. When we receive a complaint, we will assign a member of staff to investigate the issue. He or she will contact you, ideally within 5 working days, to arrange a meeting or telephone conversation in order to discuss the complaint in more detail.

This may include:

- ▶ Clarifying and understanding the details of the complaint

- ▶ Discussing the outcome that you would find acceptable
 - ▶ Checking whether anyone needs support of any kind
 - ▶ Explaining the investigation procedure and the next steps in the process
- b. We will investigate as swiftly as possible and make every effort to complete the process in a timely manner. If there are likely to be delays in resolving the problem, we will advise you and let you know how much longer it might take.
 - c. We will write to you and explain the outcome of the investigation.

How to take matters further

If you are not satisfied by the handling of the investigation, you are entitled to contact the Provision Lead or the Executive Chair of Ruskin Mill Trust for further investigation.

All complaints made to the Provision Lead or Executive Chair for Ruskin Mill Trust at this stage should be in writing, unless this is not possible for you to do.

If your complaint is from a professional body or a Local Authority about the running of one of our provisions please contact the Ruskin Mill Trust Company Secretary and your complaint will be reviewed by the Trustees.

You may also wish to contact the Department for Education, Education Funding Agency (EFA), Care Quality Commission, the Charity Commission or any other agency which regulates RMT's work. Contact details for these agencies are listed below.

Most external agencies will expect you to have completed RMT's complaints procedures before raising the matter with them, but they will always give advice.
