This is an excellent opportunity to work within an established and diverse charitable organisation. To succeed in this role the ideal candidate will be working in a pressurised environment in an educational sector which - as a result of government changes - is challenging and diverse. It will be important for the individual to intimately understand the multitude of changes within the sector and be able to converse at a credible level with the appropriate professionals. You will need excellent relationship management skills with the ability to cultivate long term partnerships. The successful candidate will not only be responsible for a revenue stream for an assigned region, but also be expected to identify, present and develop new business opportunities for the organisation. In this regard, the successful candidate will require a good set of analytical skills relating to data collection with the ability to influence.

If you are interested in the challenge this role presents then further details can be found in the application pack.

Closing date: Midday - Monday 15th January 2018

We reserve the right to close this vacancy early if a suitable candidate is found.
