Applications are invited for the following post that will be based at the new Clervaux Garden School (Rudolf Steiner Education) within the Ruskin Mill Trust.

School Cook - Clervaux Garden School (Rudolf Steiner Education)

20 hours per week for 40 weeks per year - Grade 5: Actual salary will be £7.872 - £8.528

Clervaux Garden School is a new, exciting and innovative provision which will offer full time education to children from 10-16 years who have significant/complex social, emotional or educational difficulties. Clervaux Garden School benefits from being in a rural location and has home grown biodynamic and organic produce grown on the land for the school kitchen. If you are creative and enjoy cooking with beautiful fresh wholesome ingredients, we would welcome your application.

The key duties in this role will include:

- To plan and budget for nutritious lunches, and any other meals, to be served in the School eating areas.
- To provide high quality nutritious meals using biodynamic/organically grown food using the principals outlined in the food and nutrition policy.
- To be responsible for monitoring and recording a high standard of Health and Safety and food hygiene, including arranging and supervising cleaning of the catering and eating areas using environmentally friendly products.

To undertake this position successfully you will have:

- Food Hygiene qualification, or willingness to work towards this upon appointment.
- Experience of working in a lead role in a catering environment
- Have experience and an interest in cooking wholesome meals from locally sourced and seasonal produce

The successful applicant will take part in an interactive induction to experience the crafts within the curriculum and experience the student journey.
