Dear Applicant

Re: Pathways Coordinator- Freeman College

Thank you for expressing an interest in the role of Pathways Coordinator at Freeman College within the Ruskin Mill Trust Group. Freeman College is going through a period of change and expansion and therefore we are looking for additional staff to provide pathways and transition support for their students.

Freeman College and Ruskin Mill Trust offers an innovative waking day curriculum being inspired by the Steiner Waldorf Curriculum and the National to children between 7 and 19 years of age with SEN, autism and complex behavioural or mental health difficulties.

The successful candidate will work in both a student contact and administrative capacity role and will be required to liaise with both internal and external stakeholders.

Please note that the application form must be completed in full (using black ink or type) as selection for interview will be based on the information provided by you. In particular, please note that we do require a full employment / work history, so please use a continuation sheet(s) if necessary.

If you declare a disability and meet the essential criteria for the role then you will be guaranteed an interview and your application will be considered on your abilities. Please ensure that you declare any disabilities on your application form.

This role is based in Sheffield but may include travel to other Trust sites. The closing date is 25th January 2019 and completed application forms must be returned by Jozi Brough, Human Resources, c/o Freeman College, 88 Arundel Street, Sheffield, S1 2NG or by email to jozi.brough@rmt.org by this time.

Our website contains further information about working for the Trust (www.rmt.org).

I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours faithfully

Lindsay Wilkinson
