

Ruskin Mill Trust operates nine provisions that provide innovative and experimental education for young people with special learning needs, developed out of inspiration of Rudolf Steiner, William Morris and John Ruskin.

Applications are invited for the following post that will be based within Freeman College (Ruskin Mill Trust) based in Sheffield

Front of House Assistant - Fusion Café & Freeman College
Zero hour contract - there are a variable number of hours and shifts available each week

Age related National minimum wage

Fusion Café teaches Catering and Hospitality to Freeman College's students while operating as a successful café for the public of Sheffield. We require a Front of House Assistant to work as part of the Fusion Café team.

Please note that you will be working as part of a changing rota, which includes regularly working Saturdays and some evening work supporting private bookings and special events.

Key Duties include:

- To take a role in Fusion Café front of house, barista work, taking orders and serving customers while role modelling appropriate behaviours for service users who may be doing work experience in the café.
- To follow food hygiene and health and safety regulations.

To undertake this position successfully you will have:

- Experience of working within a catering environment.
- Experience of working with young people with learning disabilities / learning difficulties and of managing challenging behaviour is desirable but not a requirement. Successful applicants will share their working environment with service users and may be required to work directly with them.

We also have a nutrition policy which focuses on Biodynamic and Organic food so we are keen to see applicants who share our passion for nutrition and seasonal cooking.

A flexible and professional approach to work is required.

Closing Date: Noon on Friday 14th June 2019

Ruskin Mill Trust is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and vulnerable people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Successful applicants will be required to undergo an enhanced DBS check (previously known as a CRB Disclosure).

The Trust is committed to becoming an equal opportunities employer.
