

Clervaux Garden School- Ruskin Mill Trust

Ruskin Mill Trust operates nine provisions that provide innovative and experiential education for young people with special learning needs, developed out of the inspiration of Rudolf Steiner, William Morris and John Ruskin

We have an exciting new opportunity at Clervaux Garden School in Darlington. The School provides a child-centred curriculum, adapted to each child's developmental and learning needs, and the opportunity to discover each child's path to lifelong learning, offering a variety of educational programs designed to meet the needs of students with developmental delays, social and sensory sensitivities, and learning challenges.

Pottery Tutor

24 hours per week, 52 weeks per year

Payable salary is £12,143 - £17,472 based on the FTE salary of £20,324.99 - £29,231.40

The post holder will be required to deliver Pottery tuition and help children and young people achieve accredited qualifications, meeting the needs of the individual children and young people in line with external requirements and within the Trust's methods and values.

The key duties of this role will include:

- To plan and deliver Pottery sessions and teach the children and young people how to produce practical and meaningful items from the materials at source (clay) into community orientated projects and items.
- Ensuring children and young people engage in learning and achieve: through careful planning of the structure, methodology and delivery of the learning experience.
- To deliver sessions using the Ruskin Mill Trust methods of Practical Skills Therapeutic Education, embedded in the local environment and linking into other areas of the curriculum where appropriate such as functional skills.
- To be a part of ongoing assessment of children and young people learning needs and to make reasonable adjustments as required minimising barriers to learning and achievement.

To undertake this position successfully you will have:

- Experience of working with clay whilst having the ability to produce high items that the children and young people can use.
- A teaching qualification is desirable but not essential. If not held the successful candidate must be willing to work towards one.
- Experience of delivering the Steiner Waldorf Curriculum would be desired
- Experience of working with children with learning disabilities and/or challenging behaviour many of who are on the Autistic spectrum.
- Excellent communication and organisational skills
- A driving licence is desirable

Closing date for applications: 12pm, Monday 28th September 2020
Please note that we do not accept CV's

Clervaux Garden School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Successful applicants will be required to undergo a DBS Enhanced Disclosure (previously known as the CRB).

Clervaux Garden School is committed to becoming an equal opportunities employer.

To request an application pack, or for further information, please look on the Trust's website www.rmt.org/jobs or contact Laura Pattison, Human Resource Assistant, Department of Human Resources, Freeman College, Sterling Works, 88 Arundel Street, Sheffield, S1 2NG. Telephone 0114 252 5978 or email recruitment@fmc.rmt.org