Sunfield School and Children’s Home, part of the Ruskin Mill Trust Group, is a thriving independent special school and children’s home, set within 58 acres of idyllic parkland and nestled on the slopes of the Clent Hills. Sunfield provides innovative and experiential education, developed out of the inspiration of Rudolf Steiner, William Morris and John Ruskin and supports young people (6 – 19 years) with complex learning needs, including autism and PDA. On-site resources include a state-of-the-art sensory integration suite and family accommodation, along with resident carers, teachers, psychologists, therapists and healthcare professionals. Due to increasing number of children joining us, we are now looking to appoint Hourly Paid Care Support Workers, days and nights, to work closely with a young person, helping them to feel safe, respected, confident and capable of achieving their best. Enabling their family to feel understood, informed, supported and reassured. The successful candidate will have a great character and a desire to make a positive impact on young people’s lives. Prospective candidates should be able to demonstrate;

- A patient, caring, compassionate and child-centred approach.
- Excellent observation skills and the ability to problem solve and think creatively to enable our children and young people to reach their full potential.
- Emotional intelligence and resilience with the ability to react calmly in challenging situations.

Closing date 2nd November 2020.
