

Internal Vacancy

Ruskin Mill Trust operates eight provisions that provide innovative and inspirational education for young people with special learning needs, developed out of insights of Rudolf Steiner, William Morris and John Ruskin

Internal Applications are invited for the following post that will be based at the new Clervaux Garden School (Rudolf Steiner Education) within the Ruskin Mill Trust.

Senior Teacher

Grade 11:12, £33,524.44, - £40,049 per annum, starting salary is dependent on qualifications and experience including experience of Steiner Education.

Please note this role is employed for 40 hours per week, 52 weeks per year with 33 days' annual leave including bank holidays increasing to 38 with length of service

Clervaux Garden School is a new, exciting and innovative provision which will offer full time education to children from 10-16 years who have significant/complex social, emotional or educational difficulties.

At Clervaux Garden School students will learn through a dynamic curriculum which includes practical skills; textiles, green woodwork, pottery, cooking and blacksmithing with a significant period of time involved in growing biodynamic produce in the school gardens and looking after the farm animals. A Steiner approach to the education and academic curriculum will complement the outdoor learning aspects.

In this role you lead the qualified teaching team of the School with regard to the student curriculum, staff performance and development including monitoring and addressing the quality of teaching and learning.

You will support the leadership team of the garden school by ensuring high quality education for all its post sixteen students and the highest standards of learning, outcomes and achievement in accordance with statutory requirements, the objectives, vision and values, purpose and method of Ruskin Mill Trust.

The post holder will be required to hold a teaching qualification and have a strong understanding of the pedagogical benefits of craft and role model outstanding teaching and learning opportunities for the students through practical skills therapeutic engagement.

Closing Date: 11th September 2020

Interview w/c 14th September 2020

Ruskin Mill Trust is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Successful applicants will be required to undergo an Enhanced Disclosure via the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS).

Please note that we do not accept CV's.

The Trust is committed to becoming an equal opportunities employer.

An expression of interest and supporting statement detailing your suitability for the role will be accepted from internal applicants. Please send this to Martin.collins@rmt.org