

Class Teacher

Brantwood Specialist School is a wholly owned subsidiary of Ruskin Mill Trust and offers a unique, holistic and pupil-centred approach to the education and care of 7-19 year olds who have not succeeded in mainstream provision. The school provides an educational experience based on the National and Steiner Waldorf Curriculum, embedding the RMT practical skills therapeutic educational curriculum with accredited qualifications.

Due to an increase in student numbers applications are invited for the following post, based at Brantwood Specialist School, Sheffield.

- £23,590 to £33,473 per annum, starting salary is dependent on qualifications and experience.
- A further £2,500 is offered to the post holder to take on pastoral responsibilities associated with the Class Teacher role
- 37.5 hours per week, 52 weeks per year with 38 days annual leave

In this role you will be ensuring the pupils of Brantwood Specialist School engage in learning and achieve by providing practical, experiential and therapeutic education through careful planning of the structure, methodology and delivery of the learning experience.

You will apply your knowledge about learning and the modes of learning to plan and deliver aspects of the Steiner Waldorf Curriculum within the assessment framework of the National Curriculum in addition to their subject area.

You will ensure that students develop basic skills in numeracy, literacy, ICT and in the Core Learning Skills, together with social skills and will provide opportunities for students to practice and develop these skills, assessing their progress in accordance with the School's assessment schedule and Curriculum Policy.

You will have Qualified Teacher Status, experience of the National Curriculum framework of assessment, excellent communication and organisational skills and a practical approach to engaging age pupils. You will also have experience of working with children with learning difficulties and/or learning disabilities. Experience within specialist education and the Steiner Waldorf Curriculum are also desirable.

A flexible and professional approach to work is required.

Closing date for applications: 12 noon Friday 25th September 2020

Please note this role is employed to work for 52 weeks of the year with 38 days annual leave (including bank holidays) to be taken during the year.

We do not accept CV's. We reserve the right to withdraw the vacancy if there is a high number of suitable applicants prior to the deadline.

Brantwood Independent Specialist School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Successful applicants will be required to undergo a DBS Enhanced Disclosure. Brantwood Independent Specialist School is committed to becoming an equal opportunities employer.

For further information, please visit www.rmt.org/jobs or contact Laura Pattison, Human Resources Assistant, telephone 0114 252 5978 or email laura.pattison@rmt.org to whom fully completed applications must be returned.

