

Glasshouse College is part of Ruskin Mill Trust, a leading charitable organisation providing innovative and experiential education and training for young people marginalised by disadvantage, exclusion or special learning needs. Inspired by Rudolf Steiner, William Morris and John Ruskin, the college actively promotes the industrial heritage of the Black Country, craftsmanship and entrepreneurship in traditional and contemporary industry and crafts. The College provides an innovative and diverse Practical Skills Therapeutic Education (PSTE) curriculum and our students benefit from an extensive range of nutritional, therapeutic and medical support in each college. Each core element of the educational cycle is designed to establish active and positive relationships with nature and the community through a holistic approach to human development. This supports three key stages: overcoming barriers to learning; becoming skilled and being ready to engage and give back to the community.

35 hours per week, 37 weeks per year

Salary Range (FTE) : £15,398.58 to £18,867.54 per annum

We are seeking to appoint an additional staff member to work as part of the catering team. Ideally you will have experience of working in a catering environment and able to manage and prioritise a varied workload. A Food Hygiene certificate would be advantageous; however, full training will be provided.

Experience of working with vulnerable young people with learning disabilities would be an advantage, as you will be required to work with students under the supervision of the Catering Manager.

Main Duties to include:

- Preparation of food and cooking;
- Cleaning of food areas, including the kitchen, its surrounds and equipment;
- The serving of meals ensuring presentation is to the required standard;
- To ensure food hygiene and health and safety regulations are adhered to at all times;
- Handling money
- A flexible and professional approach to work is required.

The successful candidate must have excellent customer service skills, be personal and friendly and willing to learn and develop. An interactive induction is provided with the opportunity to try out crafts and the student experience.

Working with us is rewarding. In return, we offer competitive salaries and an auto-enrolment pension scheme. In addition, staff receive:

- a comprehensive induction, an excellent personal development plan and extensive training to include Autism, Attachment, Emotional Resilience, Holistic Support, Practical Skills Therapeutic Education (PSTE), MAPA (physical intervention) training
- a unique location in which to work, with free lunches during term-time and on-site car parking.

The post is subject to satisfactory references, an enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) check, medical check, evidence of qualifications, and verification of the right to work in the UK. Ruskin Mill Trust is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.
