Training and Development Coordinator (Hiram Education and Research Team)

Salary Range: £30,841 - £38,564 per annum.

Full Time working 40 hours per week/ 52 weeks per year.

(Starting salary will be subject to experience)

Based at Freeman College in Sheffield

We are looking for a full time Training and Development Coordinator to join the Hiram Education and Research Team to support the continuing professional development of our staff.

In this role you will bring the vision, values, method and purpose of Ruskin Mill Trust to life for staff, through training and development opportunities at our sites. In addition you will ensure that all mandatory trainings are in place for all staff who work on these sites.

You must have experience of working with the insights and ideas of Rudolf Steiner and be an experienced trainer.

This role would suit someone who has significant experience within a Waldorf education setting.

For the successful applicant, an interactive induction is provided with the opportunity to experience the Trust's method of Practical Skills Therapeutic Education.

Working at Ruskin Mill Trust is incredibly rewarding and in return, we offer competitive salaries, with progression in pay and an auto-enrolment pension scheme. In addition, staff receive;

- A comprehensive induction, extensive training and development plan to include Autism, Attachment, Practical Skills Therapeutic Education (PSTE), MAPA (Physical Intervention) training and much more
- 33 days annual leave (including bank holidays) which increases with length of service.

The Trust is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Successful applicants will be required to undergo a Disclosure and Barring Service Enhanced Level Disclosure. The Trust is committed to becoming an equal opportunities employer
