JOB TITLE:	Gateway Programme Independent Living and Practical Skills Learning Assistant
DEPARTMENT:	Education
RESPONSIBLE TO:	Gateway Programme Independent Living and Practical Skills Learning Assistant
FIELD OF PRACTICE:	Practical Skills and Therapeutic Education (Field 2 and 4)
SALARY/ GRADE:	£13,379.2- £15,643.6- pro rata actual salary range
HOURS:	40Hours per week, 37 weeks

Overview Vision and values

The post holder of the role of Gateway Programme Independent Living and Practical Skills Learning Assistant will work under the supervision of a Gateway Programme Independent Living and Practical Skills Tutor to support the learning and development of a small number of post-school age learners (16-25 years old) with complex needs to develop their independence through the increase of their ability to communicate, regulate their emotions, process sensory information, form and maintain relationships, and care for themselves in the residential environment and in the community, along with the development of their functional skills and accredited learning. The needs of the learners include health needs such as epilepsy and visual impairment, non-verbal communication, and personal care.

The Gateway Programme is delivered on the Sunfield grounds, consisting of 58-acres of farms, gardens, and woodlands, and in the community through practical and experiential activities. The programme is registered through Glasshouse College and Gateway team will liaise closely with the programme lead at Glasshouse College. The post holder will work as part of team of learning assistants, led by a tutor, and will work closely with the residential home manager of the residence of learners, located on the Sunfield site.

The post holder will be expected to support, embrace, articulate and work with Sunfield's vision, values and purpose, which is drawn from a long history of appreciation and integration of Rudolf Steiner's insights into human development. They will braid this insight into practical, purposeful and therapeutic education programme that supports the physical, emotional and spiritual development of the children and young people who attend Sunfield. In addition, the post holder will help Sunfield to support our families and carers, and look to advance the public understanding through education and research.
