Salary Range From: FTE £22,619.83-£32,139.09

Salary will be pro rata for term time:

£11,011 - £15,646.56 dependent on qualifications and experience

This post will be based at Freeman College in Sheffield which is one of three specialist colleges operated by Ruskin Mill Trust offering both day and residential provision. We have expertise in working with young people aged 16-25 with complex behaviour and learning difficulties and disabilities, including autistic spectrum conditions, whose needs cannot be met elsewhere. We provide experiential education developed out of the inspiration of Rudolf Steiner, William Morris and John Ruskin.

The key duties in this role will include:

- To plan and deliver catering sessions to a small group of students according to their individual learning needs and requirements whilst preparing food for staff and students at the college sites (up to 75 people).
- To embed communication, word and number into all catering sessions with students.
- To be a part of ongoing assessment of students learning needs and to make reasonable adjustments as required minimising barriers to learning and achievement.
- To deliver BTECs in catering and to set sessional targets for the student and to complete progress and achievement paperwork, end of term reports etc

To undertake this position successfully you will have:

- Experience of catering and teaching/training catering
 - A teaching qualification or working towards a relevant teaching qualification.
 - Knowledge of specialist education
 - Experience of working with learners with learning difficulties and/ or learning disabilities
 - Excellent communication and organisational skills
- Ruskin Mill Trust is committed to professional development for staff and the successful candidate will be required to attend Ruskin Mill Trust Food and Nutrition Course.

Working at Ruskin Mill trust is incredibly rewarding and in return, we offer competitive salaries, with progression in pay once qualified and an auto-enrolment pension scheme. In addition, staff receive;

- A comprehensive induction, extensive training and development plan to include Autism, Attachment, Practical Skills Therapeutic Education (PSTE), MAPA (Physical Intervention) training and much more.
- 33-38 days annual leave (including bank holidays) increasing with your length of service with us.
- Free organic meals when working on shift during term time.

The post is subject to satisfactory references, an enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) check for both Adults and Children, a medical check, evidence of qualifications, plus verification of the right to work in the UK. Freeman College is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.
